A Gift Of Magic Lois A Gift of Magic differs from Duncan's typical young adult thrillers. This one has magical realism instead of a mystery. A mother recently divorced moves her three children into the home she's inherited from her mother. Along with the home the children begin to develop heightened skills: one gets music, one gets dance and the A Gift of Magic by Lois Duncan - Goodreads A Gift of Magic Paperback - June 19, 2012 by Lois Duncan (Author) > Visit Amazon's Lois Duncan Page. A Gift of Magic by Lois Duncan - Books-A-Million Heidi Lois Steinmetz Prologue Once upon a time, in a house by the sea, there lay an old woman—a special old woman, who had the gift of magic. She said to her daughter, who sat near her bed, “I leave you this house, my dear. You do not need it now, but there will come a time when you will. And I want to leave something to each of my grandchildren. A Gift of Magic (Lois Duncan) » Read Online Free Books Duncan marries Mrs. Garrett and they have a daughter, it continues: ""Her name was Lois and she was born with the gift of storytelling."" Well, notwithstanding her extravagances and her compulsion to give each child (Brendon included, extraneously) equal time, Lois -- whose gift is a bit more modest than she is -- has made the most of it here.
